ABOUT US

The Select Group excels in connecting great companies with top-notch talent. We provide the whole spectrum of technical services, and help our consultants find the career of their dreams. We're in the business of impacting lives, one positive experience at a time.

ASSOCIATE DELIVERY MANAGER ROLE

The Delivery Manager (DM) role provides qualified candidates to fulfill clients' hiring needs using recruiting strategies and best practices. Successful applicants will be self-starters who are competitive and driven to succeed in a sales career.

- Develop recruiting strategies through various tools, including cold-calling, networking events, and utilizing databases for lead generation.
- Interview potential consultants while coaching them and assessing their technical skills.
- Develop expert-level knowledge of a local client base in order to successfully connect the right consultant with the right opportunity.
- Negotiate contract and full placement terms.
- Operate with a high sense of urgency in a fast-paced environment.
- Regularly network with technical professionals to build relationships, obtain referrals, and leads.
- Maintain consultant relationships through luncheons, feedback sessions, and networking events.
- Develop and mentor new Associate Delivery Managers on the delivery management path.
